JOHN W. WOOD, neatly and expeditiously executed at the office, on the shortest possible notice.

GEO. A. CROFT, 73 South Fourth street, above Walnut, Philadelphia, is our authorized agent to obtain advertisements for us in that city.

The Law of Newspapers.

1. Subscribers who do not give notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled the bill, and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

The Courts have decided that, refusing to take papers from the office, or removing and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

Postmasters who notify a publisher that a newspaper is not taken from the office, are required to give the reason why they are not taken out. (See Post Office Instructions and Laws.)

JOB PRINTING.

Having connected with this office a good Job Printer, we are prepared to execute all orders in this department with neatness and dispatch. We would respectfully ask merchants and all others who want

CARDS, CIRCULARS, PAMPHLETS, BLANKS, HANDBILLS, BILL-HEADS, TICKETS, PROGRAMMES, CATALOGUES, To give us a call. Our Job Type are of the most modern manufacture, and cannot fail to please all who may favor us with their patronage.

President's Message.

We this week lay before our readers this extraordinary document. Despite the times honored custom of awaiting for an organization of Congress, President Pierce has "initiated" upon the country, in advance his administration's policy. It is a document of great importance, and one which will be read with interest by all who are concerned with the future of our country. It is a document which shows the President's views on the various questions which are before the country, and which will be of great value to all who are interested in the progress of our country.

President's Message.

He says that it is enjoined by the Constitution on the President, to give to Congress information of the State of the Union and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient. Well, if it is, how can he give to Congress information, before there is a Congress? That there is no Congress as yet to transact any business is admitted even by himself, when he says that it "has been usual" for the President to make no communication of a public character to the Senate and House of Representatives until advised of their readiness to receive it. Then, why send his message—to a body that can have no action upon it? His "convictions of duty" would not permit him longer to withhold the invaluable document.—Invaluable because the Southern States were holding their Conventions and selecting their delegates to attend the Democratic National Convention soon to assemble at Cincinnati; therefore, it behooved the little Brigadier General to make known through his miserable petty fogging document, "his position upon the infamous Kansas Nebraska act! He has come down into the slough and mire, of a bar-room, beer, and pot house politician, in order to abuse the free States of the North that he might make himself acceptable in the eyes of Southern Slaveholders. This is as we expected, and of right ought not probably to complain; but have referred to the untimely message, in order that our readers may see what "stuff their President is made of."

President's Message.

Let every honest northern man read that portion of the message that refers to the action of the Northern States, and then say, if the "tinge of shame" has not mantled his cheek to see how detestable mean, the Chief Executive of this Union, has made himself in the eyes of every unbiased mind.

President's Message.

Verily, I being "born and bred" on the Granite Hills of New Hampshire, have been of little use, in the instruction of Young Frank Pierce to notions of firmness and manly bearing. He has been "as clay in the hands of the potter" (All Dough).

President's Message.

MATIMONY FOR EVER!—Nothing is like it—particularly if you are sure to get the object of your choice. But how? Oh, the easiest thing in the world now. They can no longer resist. They must love you, if you so will it. Only read Professor Roudoux's book, "The Bliss of Marriage," which we advertise to-day. It helps you to the conjugal secret. It is wonderful.

President's Message.

The four men who are charged with burglary in breaking into the store of David White in Wattsville, on the night of December 2nd, are now in the county jail awaiting their trial before the Common Pleas Court, at its April term.

$7,000 AT COST!!

THE SUBSCRIBERS HAVING DETERMINED TO quit the Mercantile Business will from this date offer their entire stock of goods at ACTUAL COST. As the principal part of the stock has been bought the last year, for cash only, it will be found that they are offered lower than the usual cost to country stores. Country merchants will find it a good opportunity to replenish at lowest Eastern rates.

All kinds of produce taken in exchange at market rates. Reasonable time allowed on bills of $20 and up wards. Those indebted to Sloan & Co. will save them selves and us trouble by Prompt Payment. Those holding claims against Sloan & Co. will please present their bills. SLOAN & JUTH, Hanoverton, Jan. 3, 1856.—4w.

The Musical World for 1856.

WE commence the new year with a reduction of one third from our former subscription. We take this time to give our subscribers the widest possible circulation. The price then, hereafter will be two dollars per annum to all who pay in advance; to those who do not pay in advance (only) it will be three dollars. This reduced subscription will still include, as a gift, a portrait of Mozart, which we have had specially engraved or lithographed, and which will serve as an excellent study-piece embellishment for the music-stand of the year 1856.

A Musical Novelties will be commenced and published serially with the first number in January. The other valuable features of the journal will remain as before, viz: four pages of Fresh Music weekly, paper carefully, bound at the end of the year will form a volume worth $12.00; instructive musical readings; articles on vocal and instrumental culture; condensed musical news from all parts of the world.

The no. 9 department of General Literature is still in the same able hands, which have so long gained it a high reputation. It comprises the best translations of the best things in French and other foreign journals; judicious selections from books and magazines; and generally one good story in every number.

Country schools and churches are charged fifty cents extra for the expense of carrier. Canada subscribers pay twenty-six cents for the necessary per-payment of American postage.

Any journal-copying this entire announcement and drawing editorial attention to it before the close of this month, will receive the Musical World in exchange for a year and a portrait of Mozart.

RICHARD STOKES WILLIS, Proprietor, Jan. 3, '56. 257 Broadway, N. Y.

Ohio Cultivator for 1856.

DEVOTED TO AGRICULTURE, HORTICULTURE and HOME INTERESTS.—Published twice every month—16 pages large octavo.

Volume XII of this old favorite Journal will commence on the 1st January, 1856, printed on an entire sheet of new type, and will be especially interesting to every engaged in general Agriculture, Stock Raising, Gardening, Fruit Growing, &c., or interested in the happiness and intelligence of the Home Circle. The Editor confidently hopes and expects that every friend of industrial progress will find its influence and patronage to sustain this old and true friend of the rural farmer, and to increase its circulation until we shall have, as we certainly deserve, a rising list in every neighborhood.

The entire proprietorship of the Cultivator has been purchased by Col. S. D. Harris, who has been Associate Editor with Mr. Bateman for the last five years, and he is determined that the paper shall be essentially desirable for every farmer's friend. He has the means and the disposition to make it so, and he calls on his friends—which include all mankind and womanhood—to send on the names and the cash for a real live and independent Farmer's paper.

Single copies, $1 a year, 4 copies, for $3; 6 copies for $5 (and a copy to the getter up of the club)—always in advance, and to begin with the year. For special offers to local agents, acquaintances at your post office, or send directly to me for a full prospectus and specimen copy, and raise a club in your own neighborhood. S. D. HARRIS, Editor and Proprietor, Dec. 30, '55. Columbus, Ohio.

ART ASSOCIATION!
